Mary Miller Taylor.

"It was only a glad good
morning,
As she passed along the
way,
But it spread the morning's
glory,
Over the livelong day."

Collect

Keep us, O God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, indeed, Let us be done with faultfinding,
and leave off self seeking.
May we put away all pretense, and meet each other face to face without self pity and without prejudice.
May we never be hasty in judgement
and always generous.
Teach us to put into action our better
impulses, straightforward and unafraid.
Let us take time for all things, make us grow calm, serene and gentle.
Grant that we may realize that it is th
little things that create differences, that in the big things of life we are as one.
And may we strive to touch and to know
the great common woman's heart of us al and, O, Lord God, let us not forget to be kind.

Mary Stuart.
